

Crisis Stabilization

Crisis Stabilization Residential services [CSRS] are short term services provided in our 8-bed residential house. The goal of the CSRS is to stabilize and reintegrate youth back into the community. Tanager's CSRS is designed for voluntary youth placements, who are in need of a safe, secure environment less intensive and restrictive than an inpatient hospital.

Crisis Stabilization: What to Expect

Admission Process

CSRS is a voluntary placement option. Voluntary placement means we do not accept court orders or have reserved beds for Law Enforcement, Juvenile Court, or HHS.

Youth may be referred for CSRS in the following ways:

- Youth ages 14 to 17 can self-refer.
- Parents or legal guardians can refer.
- Community support workers can refer.

Parent/Guardian must still place

1. CONTACT ADMISSION STAFF

To begin the admission process, contact a dedicated admission staff via phone or email!

Contact by Phone:

- Call 319-286-4552 ext. 242 to speak to crisis staff
- If crisis staff is attending to another inquiry, you will receive a confidential voicemail box.
- Please leave a voicemail.
- Crisis staff will respond within 1 hour

During normal business hours

Contact by Email
